

Do you like to draw?

ANNOUNCING

2014 Art Competition for Young People

What

Drawing competition on the 'Right to Peace' – the theme of the 2014 International Day of Peace. Drawings will examine the linkages between peace and human rights.

Note: Any words in the drawing should be in English

Who

Students from lower secondary grades 6,7 and 8 (ages 10-15).

How

Participating schools will host a drawing session, with materials and support provided by UNRCPD staff and volunteers. Drawings will be collected after the session. Each drawing should have the name of the student, age, school name and grade on the back.

When

The contest runs from 1 July to 31 July 2014. The winner will be announced end of August. An award ceremony will be organised on International Peace Day on 19 September 2014.

Why? Prizes!

There will be one finalist from each age category (10-11, 12-13, 14-15) chosen and one overall winner will be selected. The artwork will be judged using the criteria: creativity, composition, theme and technique. At the award ceremony the overall winner will receive a prize worth Rs. 3,000.00 towards his/her education, and his/her school will receive Rs. 4,000.00. The two runners-up will receive prizes worth Rs. 1,000.00 each towards their education. All participating schools will receive complementary prizes, and delegations from all schools will be invited to the award ceremony.

Contact

United Nations Regional Centre for Peace and Disarmament in Asia and the Pacific (UNRCPD)
P.O. Box 107, Pulchowk, Lalitpur
Phone: +977 1 5010257, info@unrcpd.org, www.unrcpd.org

Notes

Copyright: All drawings must be original, and the UN retains all copyright of the material submitted. Drawings should not contain personal information.

